

Companies Act 2006 – October 2008 Provisions

October 2008

Further recent changes under the Companies Act 2006 came into effect on 1 October 2008 which have a direct impact on company governance. This includes in particular the new directors' duties and the authorisations in relation to conflicts of interest. This is a good time now to review your memorandum and articles and to get advice on how these changes impact on your company and in particular the responsibilities, liabilities and duties of directors.
