

Brendan Fox

Partner

Educated at Queen's University Belfast (LL B) (CPLS).

Admitted as a solicitor in 1991, he has been a Partner with Cleaver Fulton Rankin since 1998.

Brendan is involved in a range of commercial litigation with particular expertise in the construction and intellectual property sectors. He has in the past acted for Kingspan Building Products Limited in relation to a multi party construction dispute, DED v J Kennedy & Others and has also acted for Lisburn Borough Council in relation to the review and preparation of construction documentation. He has also been involved in numerous claims for loss and expense and has given talks and workshops to the Construction Employers Federation.

He also has a developing practice in intellectual property and receives referrals from other Northern Ireland firms and his clients include several household names such as SmithKline Beecham plc and Philips Electronics.

Key Transactions

Brendan is currently advising the Business Software Alliance in Northern Ireland along with Bristows, Solicitors in relation to copyright infringement actions.

Brendan is also involved in numerous constructions disputes involving the public procurement rules for clients such as H & J Martin Limited.

Advising developers such as Brookview Developments on multi jurisdictional disputes relating to property developers.

Endorsements

The Chambers and Partners Legal Directory recognises Brendan as a "leading lawyer" in the field of Commercial Litigation and he "is praised for the tenacity with which he fights his corner"

Brendan is "very good to deal with. His unrivalled legal knowledge and easy-going manner ensure that he has a comfortable relationship with us."

"Responsive and client-focused this Belfast Team has been in the IP game for a long time and has developed a fine reputation. It handles transactional work easily, but its real strength is said lie in litigation. Lawyers have extensive trade mark and design rights experience. Brendan Fox is an exceptionally gifted litigator say respondents."

Professional Associations and Qualifications

Brendan is member of the Law Society of Northern Ireland.