

Breandán Kearney

Assistant Solicitor

Breandán was educated at St. Colman's College, Newry and graduated from NUI University College Dublin in 2002 with a degree in Politics and French. Breandán trained with Dillon Eustace Solicitors in Dublin and was admitted as a solicitor in the Republic of Ireland in March 2007. He was admitted as a solicitor in Northern Ireland in April 2007.

Breandán is an Assistant Solicitor in the firm's Company Commercial department working mainly in the areas of commercial, banking, and corporate finance.

Key Transactions

Assisting on the due diligence processes, negotiation of agreements, and drafting of documentation on a variety of mergers and acquisitions, shareholders agreements and joint ventures.

Advising on company law compliance issues, governance issues, statutory company books record-updating and Companies Registry filing obligations.

Advising on franchise agreements and providing general commercial and contract advice to clients in relation to terms and conditions for contract of services.

Advising a Northern Ireland IT company on their privacy policy and drafting terms and conditions of use for both employers and recruitment agencies during the launch of their website.

Advising a Northern Ireland software developer on terms and conditions of website development and design agreements including advice on intellectual property rights, limitations on liability, indemnities, warranties and representations.

Advising various financial institutions on commercial lending and project finance transactions, including the review and drafting of security documentation for clients such as Abbey Commercial Mortgages, HSBC Bank plc and Ulster Bank plc.

Assisting in the purchase of a helicopter for a Northern Ireland company including advising on the terms and conditions of the loan and mortgage documentation, registration formalities and corporate elements.

Professional Associations and Qualifications

Member of the Law Society of Northern Ireland

Member of the Law Society of Ireland

Member of the Northern Ireland Young Solicitors Association

Member of the Belfast Solicitors Association

Member of the Committee of the Northern Ireland Company Commercial Lawyers Group