

Lisa Boyd

Assistant Solicitor

Lisa graduated from Queen's University, Belfast in July 2002 (Mathematics, 1st), July 2004 (Legal sciences, 2:1) and from the Institute of Professional Legal Studies (CPLS, Distinction) in July 2006. Having completed her two year training contract with Cleaver Fulton Rankin she became an Assistant Solicitor in September 2006 and was admitted as a solicitor in Northern Ireland in October 2006. Her areas of practice include Construction Law, both contentious and non-contentious, PPP/PFI, Tax, Mortgage Repossession and Commercial Litigation.

Key Transactions

Currently advising Titanic Quarter Limited on the suite of construction contracts, appointments and warranties relating to the development at Titanic Quarter.

Currently part of the team advising Land Securities Trillium in connection with the Northern Ireland aspects of its bid for Workplace 2010.

Currently acting for Ivywood Colleges Limited, the successful bidder in the provision of the new Belfast Metropolitan College campus at Titanic Quarter.

Advisor to a number of local developers and Councils in relation to construction documents for landmark buildings across Belfast including the Lyric Theatre and Lisburn City Council
Currently advisor to a number of national banks including HSBC and Standard Life in repossession actions.

Advising clients on tax issues within the construction industry such as CIS and contracts of employment and services.

Professional Associations and Qualifications

Associate Member of the Federation of Tax Advisors
Member of the International Project Finance Association
Member of the Belfast Solicitors Association
Member of the Northern Ireland Young Solicitors Association
Member of the Law Society of Northern Ireland