

Micaela Brunton

Assistant Solicitor

Educated in Australia at Notre Dame College, Shepparton and a graduate of Queen's University Belfast with LLB (Hons) Law with Politics, Micaela graduated from the Institute of Professional Legal Studies at Queen's University (CPLS) in July 2007. Micaela joined Cleaver Fulton Rankin in September 2005 and qualified in September 2007.

Micaela is an Assistant Solicitor in the firm's Litigation Department, her main areas of work are commercial and construction litigation.

Micaela also advises on rights and obligations under the Data Protection Act, public procurement guidelines in relation to the private sector and litigious intellectual property disputes.

Key Transactions

Acting for The Guram and Devine Group in a series of commercial action.

Advising local bodies and multi national companies in relation to intellectual property rights including trademark infringement, passing off and parallel imports.

Advising H & J Martin Limited of their obligations in relation to the Data Protection Act and the Freedom of Information Act.

Advising clients on the public procurement process and guidelines in relation to the private sector.

Acting on behalf of commercial and private clients in contractual disputes.

Advising Developers such as Brookview Developments Limited and Harcourt Developments in relation to land and property disputes such as adverse possession and rights under the Business Tenancies (NI) Order 1996.

Professional Associations and Qualifications

Member of the Law Society of Northern Ireland
Member of the Belfast Solicitors Association