

Mairead O'Boyle

Assistant Solicitor

Mairead graduated from the University of Ulster, Jordanstown with a BA Hons Degree in Law and Economics and joined Cleaver Fulton Rankin in 1998.

Mairead has mainly been involved in defence work for major insurance companies arising out of employer/public and motor claims and prosecution work for two local Councils. She has also been involved in minor criminal defence work.

Key Transactions

Defending personal injury claims arising out of employer and public liability on behalf of numerous large insurance companies.

Defending claims regarding damage caused by livestock on behalf of a major equine insurer.

Defending product liability claims arising out of manufacturing defects.

Carrying out preliminary investigations on behalf of large insurance companies in relation to accidents in the workplace and specifically, she acts for the Insurers of two large factories in the manufacturing industry for the past 4 years. Mairead also provides reports on liability and quantum, taking in to account up-to-date Legislation in Health & Safety in the Workplace.

Taking personal injury claims on behalf of individuals arising out of public liability matters including slips, trips and falls.

Acting for two local Counsel's for the past 6 years in relation to prosecuting the following:-

- Breach of the Bye-laws including consumption of alcohol in public places and dropping litter.
- Breach of the dogs Legislation including dogs attacking individuals & livestock, failure to licence and straying.
- Breach of the waste disposal legislation.
- Breach of Health & Safety Legislation where fatalities have occurred.
- Breach of the Smoking Legislation.

In addition, she has advised to the following

- changes in the dogs legislation
- prosecuting minors under the Litter Order

Mairead is also experienced in defending the following:

- motoring offences including drink driving/failure to provide specimen
- assault charges

Endorsements

"We have always been pleased with the advice and details in reports sent." - Client feedback

"I was especially pleased with Mairead's practical advice and assistance in resolving this matter. A first class service." - Client feedback

Professional Associations and Qualifications

Member of the Belfast Solicitors Association
Member of the Law Society of Northern Ireland